2. MEMBERSHIP

- 2.1 The Committee shall consist of a minimum of three members appointed by the Board, on the recommendation of the nomination committee and in consultation with the Chair of the Committee. All members shall be independent non-executive directors.
- 2.2 The Chair of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board on the recommendation of the nomination committee, which shall determine the period for which they shall hold office, and in consultation with the Committee. The Chair of the Committee shall be a non-executive director who has served on a remuneration committee for at least 12 months.

- 2.5 Appointments to the Committee shall be for a period of up to three years, which may be extended for up to two additional three-year periods, provided the members (other than the Chair of the Board, if they are a member of the Committee) continue to be independent. The Committee may take decisions without a meeting by unanimous written consent, when deemed necessary or desirable by the Chair of the Committee.
- 2.6 Only Members of the Committee have the right to attend Committee Meetings. However, other individuals such as the Company's Chief Executive and/or Chief Financial Officer and/or HR Director may be invited to attend and speak at meetings (or parts thereof) of the Committee. Other persons may be called upon or shall be able to speak by prior arrangement with the Chair of the Committee.

3. SECRETARY

The Company Secretary or their nominee shall act as the Secretary of the Committee and will ensure that the Committee receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper consideration to be given to the issues.

4. QUORUM

4.1 The quorum for decisions of the Committee shall be any two members.

4.2 A duly convened meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Committee.

5. FREQUENCY OF MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet not less than twice each year or otherwise as required. Formal meetings may be held by conference telephone or other communication equipment allowing those participating to hear and speak to each other and the quorum in that event shall be any two Committee members so linked.

6. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

6.1 Meetings may also be called by the Secretary of the Committee at the request of any member of the Committee.

6.2 At least five working days' notice of any meeting of the Committee shall be given, although such notice period may be waived or shortened with the consent in writing of all the members of the Committee for the time being. Notice shall be sent to each member of the Committee, any other person required to attend and all other non-executive directors. Supporting papers shall be sent to Committee members and to other attendees, as appropriate, at the same time. Late submission or circulation of supporting papers will be permitted at the discretion of the Chair of the Committee.

6.3 Notices and supporting papers may be circulated electronically (if the recipient has agreed to receive them in this way) or in hard copy as circumstances permit.

7. MINUTES OF MEETINGS

7.1 The Secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all Committee meetings, including the names of those present and in attendance and the existence of any conflicts of interest.

7.2 The draft minutes of the meetings of the Committee shall be circulated to all members of the Committee and, once agreed, to all members of the Board unless a conflict of interest exists or exceptionally, in the opinion of the Chair of the Committee, it would be inappropriate to do so.

8. ENGAGEMENT WITH SHAREHOLDERS

The Chair of the Committee shall be available at the Annual General Meeting of the Company to answer questions arising from the Committee's annual report of the Company's remuneration policy and practices, which will form part of the Company's annual report to shareholders, and generally on the Committee's activities and achievements. The Chair of the Committee should also seek engagement with shareholders on significant matters related to the Committee's areas of responsibility.

9. DUTIES

The Committee shall, on behalf of the Board and the shareholders of the Company:

- 9.1 be responsible for determining, in accordance with the principles and provisions of the Code, the policy for directors' remuneration and setting remuneration for the Chair of the Board, executive directors and senior management including the company secretary (the "Executive Group"). No director or senior manager shall be involved in any decisions as to their own remuneration. The Board itself, or, where required by the articles of association, the shareholders should determine the remuneration of the non-executive directors, within the limits set in the articles of association.
- 9.2 in determining the remuneration policy, take into account relevant legal and regulatory requirements, the provisions and recommendations of the UK Corporate Governance Code, associated guidance and any other factors which it deems necessary. The objective of such policy shall be to attract, retain and motivate executive management of the quality required to run the Company successfully without paying more than is necessary, having regard to views of shareholders and other stakeholders.
- 9.3 in determining executive director remuneration policy and practices, the Committee should address the following:
 - 9.3.1 clarity: remuneration arrangements should be transparent and promote effective management with shareholders and the workforce;
 - 9.3.2 simplicity: remuneration structures should avoid complexity and their rationale and operation should be easy to understand;
 - 9.3.3 risk: remuneration arrangements should ensure reputational and other risks from excessive rewards, and behavioural risks that can arise from target based incentive plans, are identified and mitigated;
 - 9.3.4 predictability: the range of possible values of rewards to individual directors and any other limits or discretions should be identified and explained at the time of approving the policy;

- 9.3.5 proportionality: the link between individual rewards, the delivery of strategy and the long-term performance of the company should be clear. Outcomes should not reward poor performance; and
- 9.3.6 alignment to culture: incentive schemes should drive behaviours consistent with company purpose, values and strategy.
- 9.4 when setting remuneration policy for executive directors, review and have regard to (i) pay and employment conditions and remuneration trends across the Company or Group, especially when determining annual salary increases; and (ii) the alignment of workforce incentives and rewards with culture;
- 9.5 review the ongoing appropriateness of workforce remuneration and related policies;
- 9.6 review the ongoing appropriateness and relevance of the remuneration policy;
- 9.7 consider and determine all elements of the remuneration of the Executive Group, including:
- 9.7.1 basic salary (the Committee shall also consider the pension consequences of basic salary increases);
- 9.7.2 bonuses and performance-related payments (including profit sharing schemes) and approve the total annual payments thereof;
- 9.7.3 discretionary payments;
- 9.7.4 pension contributions;
- 9.7.5 benefits in kind; and
- 9.7.6 share options and other share awards,
- and in doing so consider the choice of financial, non-financial and strategic measures, as well as the exercise of independent judgement, taking account of company and individual performance and wider circumstances.
- 9.8 consider and determine the remuneration related provisions of the service agreements of the Executive Group (in particular the term, any notice period (which shall not normally exceed one year) and compensation commitment on early termination) to ensure that any payments that may be made under such agreements do not reward poor performance and that the duty to mitigate loss is fully recognised;
- 9.9 ensure that remuneration schemes and policies for executive directors contain, where appropriate, malus and clawback provisions in prescribed circumstances, such as payments based on erroneous or misleading data, misconduct, misstatement of accounts, serious reputational damage and corporate failure;

- 9.10 approve any payment to, and/or any non-cash benefit to be provided to, or for the benefit of an executive director or other member of the Executive Group and any other terms and conditions to apply on termination of that person's employment (once the decision to dismiss or reach agreement to terminate employment has been taken by the Board);
- 9.11 approve the design of, and determine targets for, any performance related pay schemes operated by the Company for the Executive Group and consider setting a limit in monetary terms for what it considers is a reasonable reward for individual executives;
- 9.12 establish and review, as the Committee considers necessary, key performance indicators, gender and other pay reporting metrics;
- 9.13 in relation to any incentive plan for the Executive Group, including cash bonus plans and any share-based plans:
 - 9.13.1 determine policy for the grant of awards/options to executive directors and senior executives of the Company and the Group, to ensure that they are provided with appropriate incentives consistent with the Company's policy;
 - 9.13.2 approve all and any awards/options to executive directors and senior executives, including consideration of the quantum of grants and vesting schedules;
 - 9.13.3 set appropriate performance targets in connection with the awards and options;
 - 9.13.4 determine, in conjunction with the Company's advisers, whether such performance targets have been satisfied;
 - 9.13.5 approve any amendments to the plans prior to obtaining any necessary shareholder approval;
 - 9.13.6 exercise any discretion specified in the rules of the plans and generally oversee the administration of plans offered to executive directors and/or other senior executives;
 - 9.13.7 ensure the plans include provisions that would enable the Company to recover sums paid or withhold the payment of any sum, and specify the circumstances in which it would be appropriate to do so; and
 - 9.13.8 determine each year whether any awards will be made under the plans and, if so, the overall amount of such awards, the individual awards to executive directors, Company Secretary and other senior executives and the performance targets to be used.
- 9.14 consider and review the terms of any new equity plans for the Executive Group;

- 9.15 administer all aspects of any all-employee share scheme operated by or to be established by the Company in accordance with the rules of that scheme and any applicable legal and stock exchange requirements and with any requirements of Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs;
- 9.16 where required by law to do so, ensure that any remuneration payment or payment for loss of office to any current or former Chair or executive director of the Board is consistent with the most recent directors' remuneration policy that has been approved by shareholders or is otherwise approved by the shareholders as required by the Regulations, the Companies Act 2006, the UK Listing Rules of the UK Financial Conduct Authority (the "FCA") and all other relevant laws and regulations;
- 9.17 consider and make recommendations to the Board concerning disclosure of details of remuneration packages and structures in addition to those required by law or by the FCA or the London Stock Exchange;
- 9.18 obtain reliable, up-to-date information about remuneration in other companies of comparable scale and complexity. The Committee shall have full authority to commission any reports or surveys which it deems necessary to help it fulfil its obligations. The Committee will be at liberty (at the cost of the Company) to obtain outside legal or other independent professional advice in carrying out its tasks and such persons shall be permitted to attend meetings of the Committee but shall not be members of it;
- 9.19 be exclusively responsible for establishing the selection criteria, selecting, appointing and setting the terms of reference for any remuneration consultants who advise the Committee and to commission or purchase any reports, surveys or information which it deems necessary at the expense of the Company. However, the Committee should avoid designing pay structures based solely on benchmarking to the market or on the advice of remuneration consultants;
- 9.20 determine the policy for, and scope of, pension arrangements for each executive director and other senior executives including ensuring that only basic salary is pensionable and that the pension contribution rates for executive directors, or payments in lieu, are aligned with those available to the workforce;
- 9.21 oversee any major changes in employee benefits structures throughout the Company or Group;
- 9.22 ensure that remuneration schemes promote long term shareholdings by executive directors that support alignment with long-term shareholder interests, with share awards subject to a total vesting and holding period of at least five years, and a formal policy for post-employment shareholding requirements encompassing both unvested and vested shares;
- 9.23 design remuneration schemes and policies and practices to support strategy and promote long term sustainable success, with executive remuneration aligned to company purpose and values, clearly linked to the successful delivery of the Company's long term strategy, and that enable the use of discretion to override formulaic outcomes, include provisions that would enable the company to recover and/or withhold sums or share awards and specify the circumstances in which it would be appropriate to do so;

- 9.24 agree the policy for authorising claims for expenses from members of the Board;
- 9.25 consider whether or not and to what extent the views of employees and shareholders should be obtained in relation to the formulation of the executive directors' remuneration policy; and
- 9.26 work and liaise as necessary with all other Board committees, ensuring the interaction between committees and with the Board is reviewed regularly.
